

MARINE PEREZ

Marine joined Close Up in June 2022, as Social Media & Visibility Coordinator. Based in Paris, she has been working in the film industry since 2017 and more specifically the documentary film industry since 2019.

She fell in love with the documentary genre and has worked at various positions ever since. She worked as a sales agent for the French company Wide House, and participated in all major documentary markets around the world. She joined IDFA (International Documentary Film Festival Amsterdam) as a Forum producer in June 2021. At the Forum she organizes the Rough Cut Presentations along with other related industry events.
