

Salome Keshelashvili, Producer

Salome Keshelashvili is a MA graduate of International Relations and European studies, also, study background in Sociology and Journalism as her Bachelor. For more than 10 years she has been fostering and empowering young people in Georgia and beyond through non-formal education, working to grow, advocate and empower the Erasmus Generation and youth in Georgia. Passionate volunteer, youth worker, project manager with an intercultural/international mindset and vision. She is an Alumni of local/international levels of the Erasmus Student Network. Along with her work experience in the educational field - at a public school, Ministry of Education and Science and several Higher Education Institutions. Learning by doing as her motto she managed 3 mobilities under Erasmus+ scholarships - EVS, E+ traineeship, and E+ credit mobility. Salome's research interests are in youth development, education, internalization of education, gender equity, community empowerment and activism.