

Marguerite ROUSSELET

Marguerite Rousselet is a multilingual cultural professional specializing in international cultural cooperation and strategic partnership development. Originally from France, she has lived, studied and worked in England and Italy, earning degrees from top European institutions. With a Master's in Innovation and Organisation of Culture and the Arts, her expertise spans cultural event management and marketing, fundraising strategy, and partnership cultivation, gained through her experiences across the world, including at Il Cinema Ritrovato, Benvenuti Arts, and GIOCA Open Mic. Marguerite combines a strong academic foundation in cultural policy and analysis with practical skills in event coordination, data management, and cultural development, driven by a passion to support impactful international cultural initiatives to bring on meaningful conversations.